
Sainfoin at Honeydale Farm

We take a look at the Sainfoin crop at Honeydale and farm resident Sam Lane explains why it is such a wonderful crop to have on the farm. We look at how and when it was planted, how it's getting on, and plans for the future with this beautiful pink flowering crop

Date Posted: 31st May 2016