

The Importance of Soil

Last week we welcomed the opportunity to deliver a workshop presentation on the importance of soil health to a diverse audience attending the Green Liberal Democrats conference. This being the International Year of the Soil, it was particularly appropriate that we were able to discuss the crucial part that legumes play in sustainable agriculture.

Date Posted: 6th July 2015