Cotswold Seeds Ltd
The Cotswold Business Village
Moreton in Marsh,
Gloucestershire GL56 0JQ

Species of the Week: Maincrop Turnip

Maincrop Turnip is one of the most winter hardy forage brassica species. Also known as hardy turnips, they provide grazing for livestock late in the winter/early in the spring, when other species may have been adversely affected by frost.

Date Posted: 21st January 2019