
Mob-Grazing at Honeydale Farm

Sam 'Macca' McPherson from the Cotswold Seeds' warehouse is keen to broaden his experience at Honeydale Farm. He owns a small flock of rare Texels sheep and his father is a stockman at the Sezincote Estate, so he's putting this background to good use. Here Ian and Macca chat about the mob grazing system at Honeydale Farm, which is just coming to the end of its first 'cycle' on the Cotswold Seeds Herbal Ley.

Date Posted: 13th June 2016