
Roll leys to encourage tillering

The time to roll grass leys is before the growing season starts in earnest. Rolling swards with either a flat or Cambridge roller encourages grass to tiller so increasing future yields. Usefully it also pushes down any stones, frost lift and mole hills meaning cutting for silage is cleaner later in the year.

Date Posted: 4th April 2012