
Is Summer too late to sow wild bird seed mixtures?

Wild bird seed mixtures can be sown from May onwards. July is getting late for many species that are sown to provide winter food for farmland birds. For patching up failed sowings from May it is recommended to sow fast growing species such as mustard and rape. Our seeds RETRIEVE mixture is ideal for this. It is cheap seed and being fast growing works very reliably.

Date Posted: 20th August 2013