

Update

During the current uncertainty Cotswold Seeds remains very much open for business. We're very busy as you'd expect at this time of year but please be assured that we will do our very best to maintain the highest levels of service to our customers. You'll be advised at the time of ordering if there are any further updates.

Date Posted: 23rd March 2020