

CHCx3 July Newsletter

This month's newsletter from the Centre for High Carbon Capture Cropping news and views, including:

{image2}

- * An editorial from Stuart Knight, NIAB, CHCx3 Knowledge Hub Leader.
- * Dr Lydia Smith, Project Lead gives her views on the opportunities and challenges of high carbon capture cropping.
- * Dr Jason Kam, Scientist at Terravesta looks at unlocking the carbon storage potential of miscanthus and willow.
- * Professor Ian A. Graham, Centre for Novel Agricultural Products, University of Warwick, looks at developing hemp as a multipurpose crop for UK agriculture.
- * Meet the CHCx3 Partners: Liz Bowles, Farm Carbon Toolkit and Lead partner in the Carbon Workstream
- * In the Field: Miscanthus grower

{image3}

Plus news from the hub, details of forthcoming events, how to get involved and more.

https://www.carboncapturecropping.com/_files/ugd/f77b24_31b94259035

Date Posted: 19th July 2024